

DATA PROTECTION POLICY

Dianati & Klink Larsen Advokatpartnerselskab

(January 2026)

This data protection policy is applicable to Dianati & Klink Larsen Advokatpartnerselskab.

1 INTRODUCTION

1.1 Data protection

In relation to the provision of legal assistance, Dianati & Klink Larsen Advokatpartnerselskab processes personally identifiable information (personal data) about its clients. We have therefore adopted this data protection policy, which describes how your data are being processed as well as your rights as a data subject.

To protect your personal data in the best possible way, we assess the risk that our data processing adversely affects your basic rights, and we process your personal data based on the following basic principles:

- The processing takes place in a lawful, fair and transparent way in relation to you
- The processing is subject to a purpose limitation
- The processing is based on a principle of data minimisation
- The processing is based on a principle of accuracy, which is intended to ensure that the personal data we process about you are accurate and up to date
- The processing is based on a principle of storage limitation
- The processing is based on a principle of integrity and confidentiality

1.2 Data controller

The data controller for the processing of your personal data is Dianati & Klink Larsen Advokatpartnerselskab, which means that it is Dianati & Klink Larsen Advokatpartnerselskab that is responsible for ensuring that your personal data are processed in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 (the General Data Protection Regulation) as well as current relevant national legislation.

If you have any questions regarding the processing of personal data by our law firm, please contact the attorney responsible for the matter. If you are unsure which attorney to contact, please contact Robert Busk, Attorney, at rmb@dkllaw.com.

2 GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA AT DIANATI & KLINK LARSEN ADVOKATPARTNERSELSKAB

2.1 Processing of personal data in connection with our legal services

At Dianati & Klink Larsen Advokatpartnerselskab, we process personal data about you as an integral and necessary part of providing legal assistance and in our ongoing contact with you.

2.2 Types of personal data

The personal data processed by us include, among other things:

- Name
- E-mail address
- Address
- Telephone number
- Job function
- Financial circumstances
- Capital
- Family situation
- Employer
- Insurance details
- Former residence
- Relationships with third parties
- Social problems

In some cases, we process special categories of personal data (sensitive data) about you, including:

- Racial or ethnic origin
- Political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs
- Trade union membership
- Genetic or biometric data processed for the purpose of unique identification
- Health and sex life

2.3 The purpose of and legal basis for the processing of personal data

We collect and store your personal data for specific and legitimate purposes, for example:

- When we register you as a client or contact person in our case management system for the ongoing correspondence and invoicing
- If we need the data to get an overview of the facts of the case, thus creating the best possible basis for providing you with legal assistance and advice
- If we are required to obtain personal data under the Danish Anti-Money Laundering Act

When we collect the data from you, or from third parties, you will be informed that we collect the data and for what specific purposes.

If we subsequently need to use the data for a purpose other than the purpose stated, we will contact you and obtain your consent.

Our legal basis for processing your personal data will typically be:

In respect of general personal data:

- Article 6(1) (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation: Consent
- Article 6(1) (b) of the General Data Protection Regulation: Performance of a contract
- Article 6(1) (c) of the General Data Protection Regulation: Legal obligation
- Article 6(1) (d) of the General Data Protection Regulation: Protection of vital interests
- Article 6(1) (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation: Balancing of interests

In respect of special categories of (sensitive) personal data:

- Article 9(2) (a) of the General Data Protection Regulation: Consent
- Article 9(2) (c) of the General Data Protection Regulation: Protection of vital interests
- Article 9(2) (f) of the General Data Protection Regulation: Necessary for the establishment of legal claims

2.4 The volume of personal data

Before processing your personal data, we examine whether it is possible to minimise the amount of personal data in relation to the purpose of the processing. We also check whether some of the data types we use can be used in anonymised or pseudonymised form. This is possible if it does not adversely affect our obligations to public authorities or our day-to-day operations.

We collect, process and store only the personal data necessary to fulfil our intended purpose. In addition, it may be determined by law what type of data it is necessary to collect and store in relation to running a law firm. The type and scope of the personal data we process may also be required for the performance of a contract or other legal obligation.

2.5 Control

We continuously check, to the extent possible, that your personal data are not incorrect or misleading. In this regard, we ask you to inform us of any relevant changes in your personal data. For notification of changes, you can contact the attorney responsible for the matter.

3 SECURITY

To protect you from unauthorised access to your personal data, we use IT solutions that automatically ensure that all data are accessible to authorised persons only.

In addition, we at Dianati & Klink Larsen Advokatpartnerselskab have adopted internal procedures and policies regarding information security. Such procedures and policies contain instructions and actions that protect your personal data from being corrupted, lost, altered or published and from unauthorised access or sharing.

4 DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL DATA

As part of our legal assistance, we are sometimes obliged to disclose personal data to third parties. This may be, for example, in connection with legal proceedings, bankruptcy proceedings, the administration of an estate, the formation of a company and in many other contexts.

Third parties include, for example:

- The courts
- The opposing attorneys
- Creditors (creditors' circulars)
- The Danish Business Authority

The disclosure of personal data to a third party will always be legally justified and necessary to safeguard your or your firm's legitimate interests.

5 CLIENTS' RIGHTS

5.1 Right of access

On request, you can obtain information about the personal data and categories of personal data we process about you and the purpose of the processing if you have not already been informed about this. You can also obtain information about the period of storage of your personal data and information about the persons who have access to your personal data.

5.2 Right of objection

You may object to the processing of your personal data at any time and withdraw a previously given consent for the processing of your personal data.

However, please note that we will be able to process certain personal data without your consent if we have a legitimate interest and if the protection of your interests does not exceed that interest.

5.3 Right of rectification

If you believe that the personal data we process about you are inaccurate or misleading, you have the right to have them corrected. In this regard, you must contact the attorney responsible for the matter.

5.4 Right to have personal data limited or erased

As long as you are a client of Dianati & Klink Larsen Advokatpartnerselskab and for up to 10 years after the end of the client relationship, we will retain your personal data for the purpose of performance of public obligations and in relation to any legal disputes.

However, in some cases, we will have an obligation to delete your personal data earlier. This applies, for example, if you withdraw your consent or if the storage of your personal data is no longer necessary for the specified purposes.

If you request rectification or erasure of your personal data, we will check if the conditions are met, and, in that case, we will make the necessary alteration or erasure as soon as possible.

5.5 Right to data portability

If you request information about the personal data that Dianati & Klink Larsen Advokatpartnerselskab processes about you and the conditions for receiving the information are present, you are entitled to receive your personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, and we cannot and will not prevent you from transmitting such data to a third party. If you so request and it is technically feasible, we will arrange to transmit the requested personal data directly from Dianati & Klink Larsen Advokatpartnerselskab to a third party.

5.6 Right to complain

If you believe that your personal data are processed in violation of applicable law or other legal obligations, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Danish Data Protection Agency (dt@datatilsynet.dk).
